A spectacular contemporary retreat overlooking Ibiza's southwest coastline, with magnificent sea views, year-round sunsets and beautifully landscaped gardens.

Few positions on Ibiza's southwest coast offer the sense of seclusion found at Villa Dragonfly. At the end of a quiet cul-de-sac near San Josep, the property overlooks an uninterrupted expanse of Mediterranean, with spectacular sunsets throughout the year. Protected natural land surrounds the residence, preserving its peaceful setting.

Recently redesigned by Bloom Studio, the house combines contemporary architecture with natural stone, handcrafted oak and softly textured finishes. Expansive glazing draws the landscape into the interiors, while understated materials lend warmth to the clean architectural lines.

The main residence accommodates four generous en-suite bedrooms, complemented by an independent two-bedroom guest apartment and a separate cinema pavilion that can also accommodate guests.

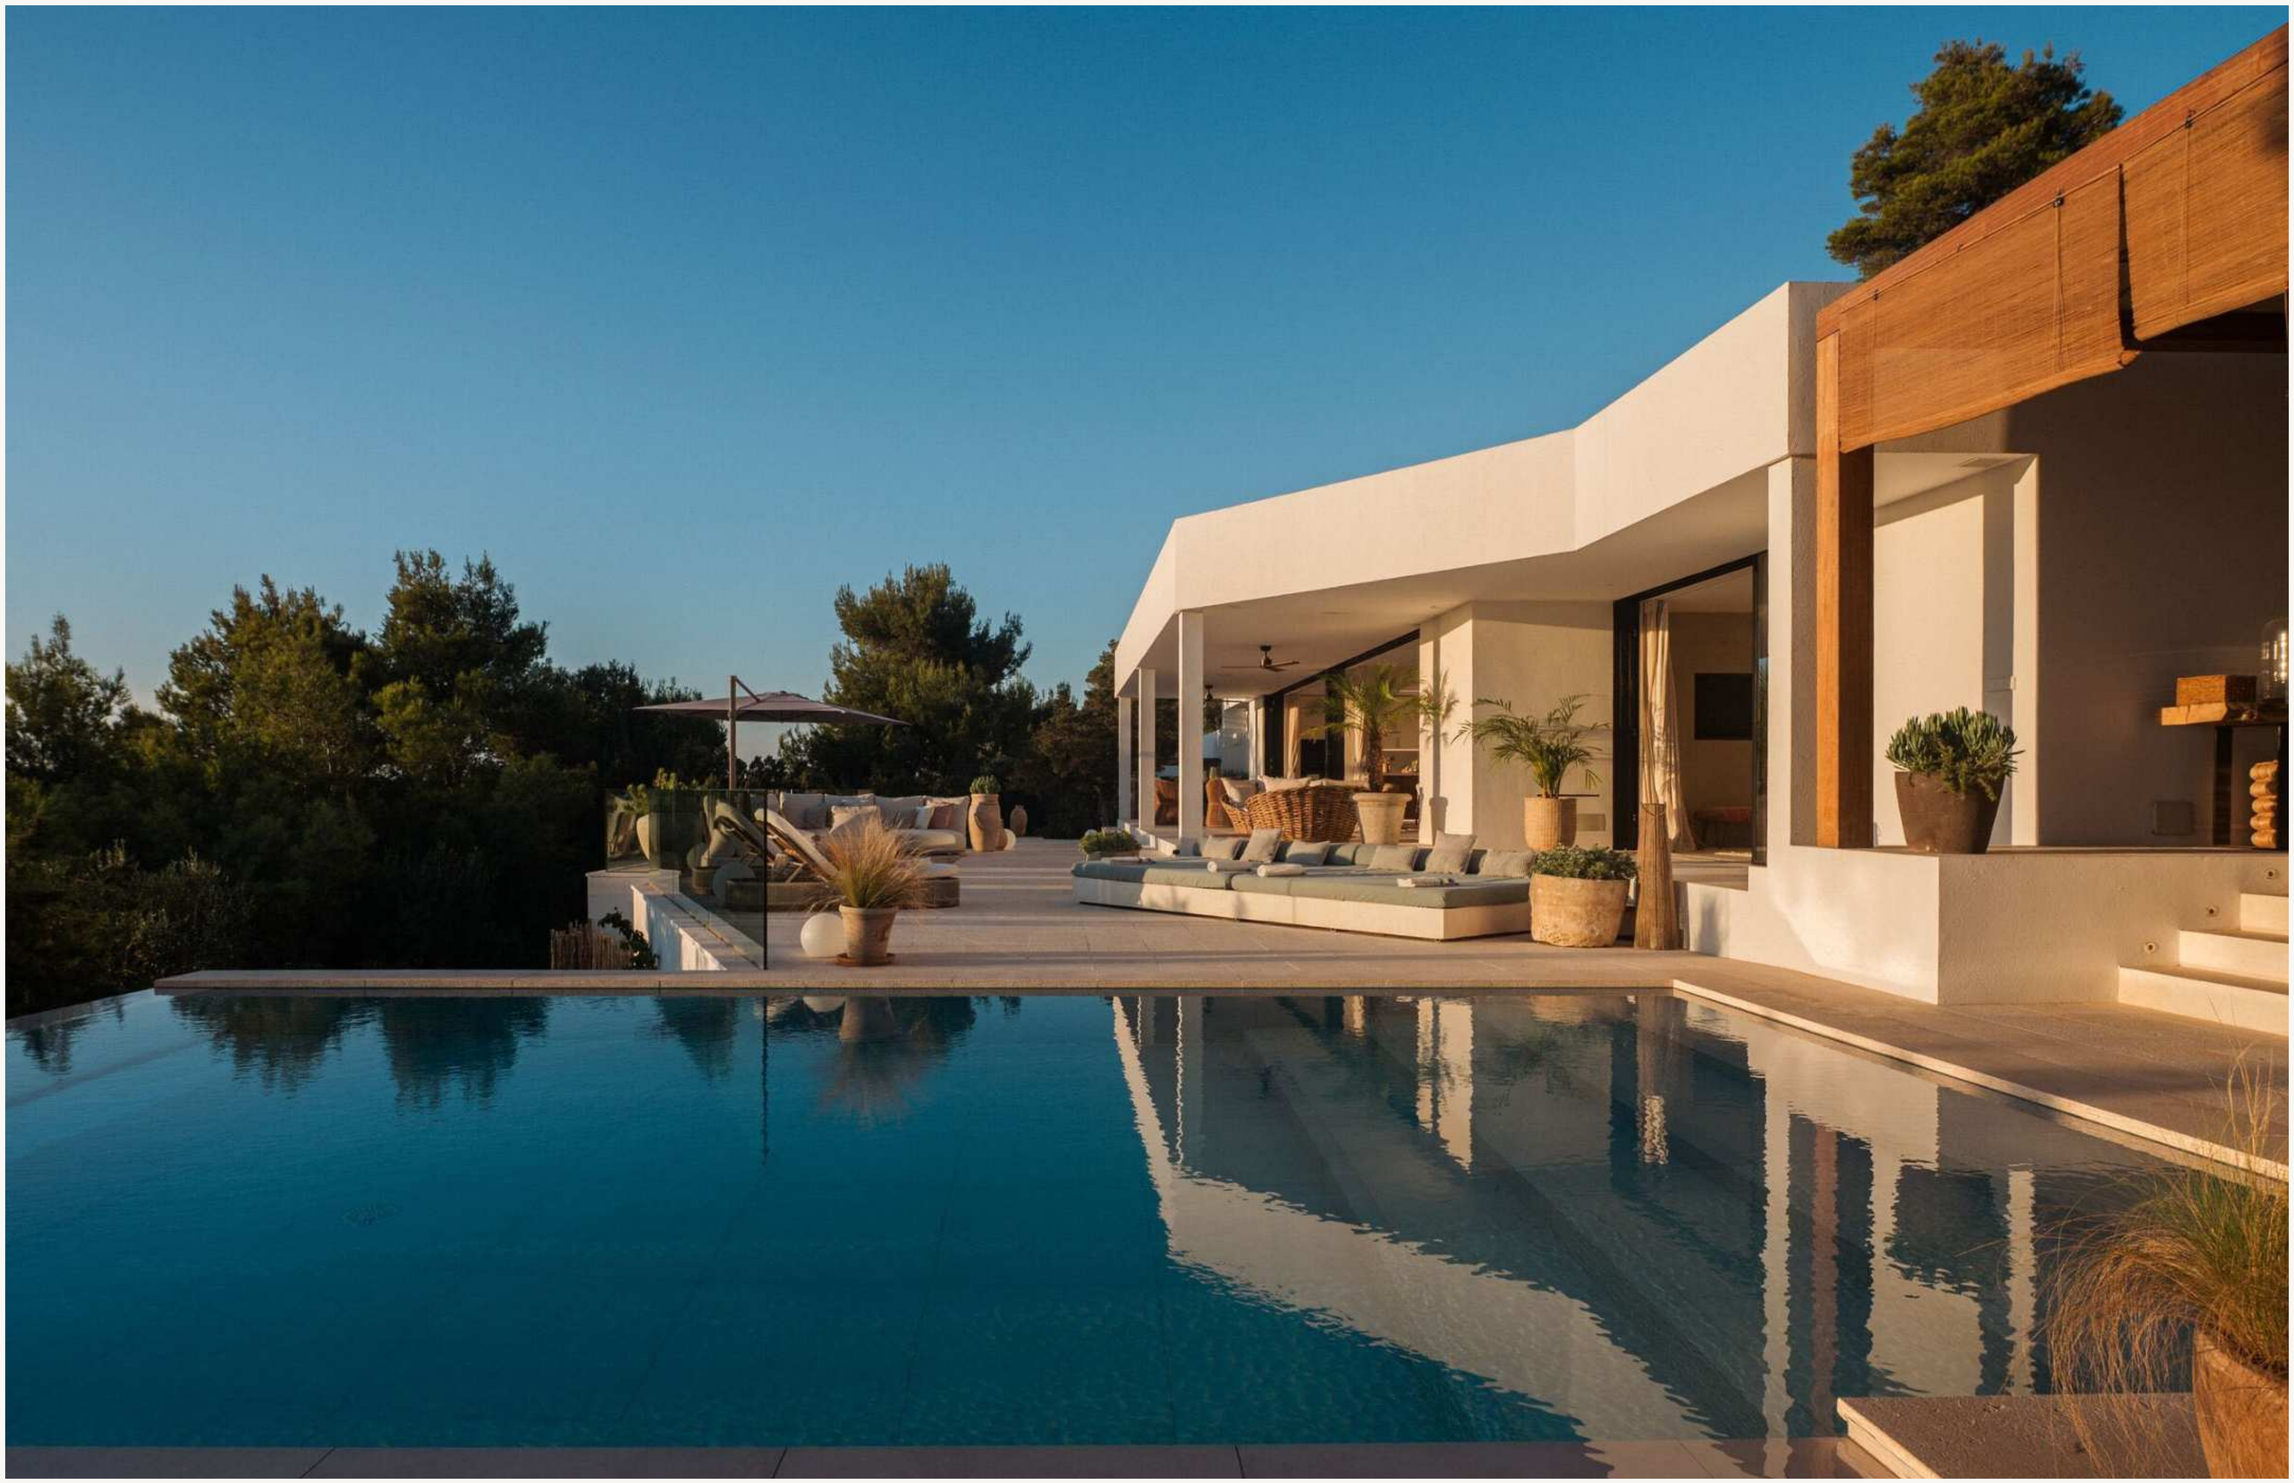

Outside, an infinity pool commands sweeping coastal views, with generous terraces arranged for dining, entertaining and relaxation. A fully equipped outdoor kitchen and shaded dining areas invite long summer lunches, while mature gardens and a beautifully conceived courtyard by Studio Laterna create more intimate spaces away from the pool.

Underfloor heating, zoned climate control, triple glazing and integrated home automation provide contemporary comfort without intruding upon the architecture. The property is offered fully furnished.

The village of San Josep, with its restaurants and cafés, is just five minutes away. The beaches of Cala Tarida and Cala Molí are easily reached, while the unmistakable silhouette of Es Vedrà completes the surrounding coastal landscape.

At the end of a quiet lane on the southwest coast, Dragonfly looks straight out to sea, where the sun sets all year.

Sant Josep is the nearest village, with its cafés and restaurants for everyday life. The west coast beaches are close: swim at Cala Tarida, Cala Molí or El Silencio, or drive on to Cala d'Hort, where the rock of Es Vedrà rises out of the water. Cala Carbó is a little further. When you want the town, Ibiza Town is an easy drive for dinner in Dalt Vila. Then come home to the quiet of protected land.
