Positioned high in the hills surrounding Santa Gertrudis. A Blakstad house in whitewash and stone, built around a view that stays entirely its own.

Set high in the hills between Santa Gertrudis and Santa Eulalia, Casa Bloom enjoys an exceptional sense of privacy, surrounded by pine forest, open farmland and uninterrupted countryside views. Occupying 23,000 m² of land, the five-bedroom residence combines the architectural traditions of Ibiza with a refined contemporary sensibility.

Designed by Blakstad Design Consultants, the house is characterised by whitewashed walls, natural stone, elm ceiling beams and beautifully considered proportions. Full-height glazing and skylights bring natural light into the interiors, while handcrafted timber doors and carefully selected materials lend warmth and character.

At the heart of the house, a generous kitchen with a striking black Zimbabwe granite island opens onto the dining and living areas, creating an inviting space for family life and entertaining. A separate sitting room with fireplace provides a more intimate retreat.

Five bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged for privacy, each opening onto its own terrace or courtyard. The principal suite enjoys expansive countryside views, a fireplace, dressing room and a beautifully appointed stone bathroom with freestanding bathtub.

Outside, an infinity pool lined with green Bali stone overlooks the valley, while timber decking, shaded pergolas and traditional dry-stone walls create a series of inviting outdoor spaces. The landscaped gardens sit naturally within the surrounding countryside.

Despite its peaceful setting, Casa Bloom is conveniently located just minutes from Santa Gertrudis, Morna International College and Santa Eulalia, with Ibiza Town less than twenty minutes away.

A considered balance of architectural elegance, countryside tranquillity and everyday convenience.

Casa Bloom sits in open countryside just outside Santa Gertrudis, on its own rise of land, with nothing but hills in view.

Start the day with a coffee in Santa Gertrudis. The school run is easy, with Morna International College close by. Santa Eulària has its marina for an afternoon by the sea. Head north through Sant Joan to the quieter coastline, or into Ibiza Town for dinner below the walls of Dalt Vila. All of it is within reach.
